Food Drive

September is Hunger Action Month, a time to band together to end hunger. A 2019 Feeding America study revealed 86,970 food insecure community members in Alaska. In an effort to support our communities, Ravn Alaska is holding a food drive throughout September. Help us reach our goal of 1,000 pounds of shelf-stable donated items and Ravn Gives Back, an initiative to promote community service, will match dollars-for-poundage, up to $2,000! Thank you for your contributions to end food insecurity and hunger.

What you can donate.

Food banks accept dry and canned food donations. What does that mean? Basically, any food that is “shelf-stable” or nonperishable – you can keep it in your pantry and it won’t go bad. And remember, only donate food that hasn’t reached its “sell-by” date yet. Specifically, food banks often need items like:

- Peanut butter
- Canned soup
- Canned fruit
- Canned vegetables
- Canned stew
- Canned fish
- Canned beans
- Pasta (most prefer whole grain)
- Rice (most prefer brown rice)
